Maria, aged 14
from Ekaterinburg

In Russia most school pupils always wear a uniform. For boys it's a grey or black suit, white shirt, usually school tie, and black shoes. For girls this is skirt, trousers or dress, but only grey and black color, and white, or black shoes. Usually, I wear in school belt. I like my school uniform, and I don't understand those who hate this.

When I go out with my friend, I wear my jeans with colorful T-shirt and blouse. I wear shoes because they're really comfortable in our country. I like belts! I have them so much! They have different colors and they are very beautiful. I hate wear skirts. I only wear skirts when I go to another special occasion.

Misha, aged 15
from Ufa

We always wear uniform at school, but on Saturday we have a free form. All children wear jeans, tracksuits, T-shirts and trainers at Saturday. I like Saturday!

TEENAGE FASHION IN RUSSIA

I'd like to talk on teenage fashion in Russia. In Russia most school pupils always wear a uniform. For boys it's a grey or black suit, white shirt, usually school tie, and black shoes. For girls this is a skirt, trousers or a dress, but only grey and black color, and white, or black shoes.

At home, I love to wear shorts and a T-shirt.

Teenagers in Russia try to show all their style in their clothes . They never try to be up with the fashion. So they don't buy very expensive clothes , they can find cool clothes even in some not great shops . Teens in Russia prefer wearing jeans an sweaters, tracksuits. They are comfortable for them.

TEENS IN THE RUSSIA

I'd like to tell you about teens in the Russia.

On school days students get up early and don't have breakfast.

They leave the house at 7-55 and walk to school. The teens have dinner at school.

Usually they eat cutlet, potatoes and tea.

Teens get home from school at about 14-40 o'clock.

And after school students go art-school, music school, dancing.

They get home 20-40 o'clock.

Teens don't have supper.

They don't go out during the week because I have a lot of homework.

But on Saturday students very like shopping.

In holiday teens travel with parents.

It's very cool!
