Alice Bennoda, aged 9, was in a shock after a strange dream last night.

Approximately, half of the third of the night Alice was having a strange dream: a great fire started ,and her mom told her that she would save her. It happened at 3:00.

Suddenly the girl woke up. It was 2:36 on the clock. Remembering her dream the girl woke parents up and explained them the reason of it. Then she forced them to put clothes on and go outside.

As soon as the clock stroke 3:00 there was an explosion in their house. A strong fire really started. Soon the firefighters were called. The parents were very grateful to Alice for a successful ending. A fireman told Alice :“If you were in the house, you wouldn’t survive after that explosion.”

On the 20th, April a 12-year-old Rob Fisher saved a baby from the fire.

Rob was going home from school. Passing by a neighboring house, he heard a baby crying. When Rob looked up, he saw some smoke, coming from the open window on the second floor. He rushed into the house and in some minutes came out with the baby in his hands.

Now Rob and the rescued baby are in the hospital. In a day they will be able to return home.

A firefighter said that Rob was very brave. He was not frightened to enter the house, where the fire had started, and rescued the baby. Rob told reporter that he wanted to return home, where his parents were waiting for him.
